FEBRUARY 2018

Hey all, Happy Valentine’s Day! Did ya ever think
-20°C would feel warm? Hope this weather warms up soon.

VALENTINE’S DAY

BECAUSE LOVE ISN'T QUITE COMPLICATED ENOUGH AS IT IS.

We had a small meeting this week due to winter holidays and such, but we did get some work done.

Harold and Talon are working hard on the upcoming Provincial Conference. I think the agenda is finalized and meals are figured out.

Bonnie is looking into updating our food safety courses. If any of you want to update also, stay tuned for details.

CHARITY APPEAL TICKETS

The Charity Appeal tickets are out and we'll be selling at CO-OP February 15th and 16th. I hope we can sell out like we always do. The Backyard BBQ tickets are also ready so be sure to get a bunch of tickets.

Roy presented an opportunity for us to help Kid Sport. If we make breakfast for their function, they will provide us workers for the air show. That would be nice.

4rd annual CHILI CHALLENGE

🌶️ Jeff and Bonnie have been figuring out the Chili Challenge and set the date for April 28th. We are hoping all the snowbirds will be home by then. It will probably be held upstairs at the Legion, where there's more room and more plug-ins. I'm looking forward to the chili.

The Vi Keach Dart Tournament is coming up on Feb. 23rd. We will serve lunch like always. Chris, Murray and Mel have stepped up.

ONE THING THAT WAS OBVIOUS AFTER OUR MEETING, THE DRUNK DRIVING CRACKDOWN IS VERY EFFECTIVE. NOBODY HAD A DRINK AFTERWARDS. WE ALL HAD A BAG OF TACO CHIPS. JUST PROVES, YA DON'T NEED BOOZE FOR HARD CORE BULL SHITTERS.
